NATURAL SOUPS AND BOTTLED VEGETABLES

The family-run company Anko offers a line of 100% natural products made in the Navarra fertile land in Spain. Without conservative nor additive, Anko products are a guarantee of a healthy and well-balanced diet.

As a continuation of the wish to supply quality food, a new line of organic soups with seaweed has been created, combining originality and well-being.

All Anko's products are an invite to the discovery of Iberian cuisine and typical products, such as the piquillo pepper. Hand-prepared and wood-roasted, they can be served as tapas or with meat or fish.
